To who it may concern;

This letter is an unsolicited recommendation for Mr Jay Johnson outlining my experience with Jay as a member of Score in Tampa Florida. Jay was a valued member of our organization performing many functions in an outstanding manner. His functions included business mentor, seminar presenter and a member of the Pasco Economic Development Council advisory board representing Score. As a mentor Jay utilized his experience with start up companies as well as corporations in business who had problems. Jays experience included business and marketing planning and strategies , cash flow analysis as well as other needs companies had with sales strategies . In addition Jay was a seminar presenter. His presentation skills were outstanding, being able to interact with participants while maintaining interest and always getting high praise on evaluations.

The Score organization lost a valued member when Jay relocated to Australia he will be hard to replace. I would highly recommend Jay. His business skills, interactive personality and overall skills to lead, guide and direct businesses will be hard to replace.

Sincerely Yours

Michael Lewis
